To whom it may concern,

It is my absolute pleasure to recommend the services of Tap 5050.

I came across the company through a google search prompted by my desire to discontinue business with our previous provider. The company's CEO, Sean O'Hagan, returned my call the same day and after a lengthy telephone conversation I knew I would be making the right choice by contracting with Tap 5050.

Sean and Chris O'Hagan made the transition seamless and our entire team thoroughly enjoyed working with them. Sean assisted with providing advice which proved to be extremely useful to our structure and Chris provided stellar technical support both prior to the event as well as being on-site for set up.

Sean and Chris went above and beyond to ensure that we were pleased with their services and equipment in the most professional manner and I look forward to working with them again during our next event.

Yours truly,

Barbara MacLeod
Director of Finance
